

Mr. Guinan's

DAILY BUGLE®

Happy Friday!

Important Announcements:

- Permission slips for Goodwin were due today; if you haven't sent the slip in with your child, please do so on Monday.
- Permission slips for our New York trip are due by April 12th.
- Ms. Bate returned a graded science assignment this week.
- If you are choosing to opt-out your child from the Sexual Abuse and Awareness class, please send in the form that went home.
- No school next Friday, followed by April break!

Enjoy your weekend!

A brief overview of each subject:

Writing: This week, students drafted the first two paragraphs of their literary essays. They will continue working on these drafts, along with some grammar review, throughout next week.

Social Studies: WWI and major developments in 1918.

Math: Continued practice with variables, writing equations based off a story, and writing a story to match an equation.

Classroom News

On Friday we went out for extra recess, and there were goats and chickens! Also on Friday we watched a fun video and got to pick from the prize box.

Joke of the week!!!

What type of sandals do frogs wear.....?
